BREAKING INDUSTRY NEWS

COLORADO -- The "Adams Report by JC Adams" confirmed today that performer Kristian Brooks has died. He passed from AIDS at a hospice in Colorado, according to a family friend. He was 35 years old.

Kristian Brooks was a popular star in the late '90s and appeared in over 30 titles between 1997 and 1999, many of them considered classics of the era. His acclaimed performances include DREAM TEAM (Studio 2000, 1999) and FAMILY VALUES (Men of Odyssey, 1997) for legendary director Jerry Douglas, as well as FEVER (Falcon Studios, 1998), HARDCORE (All Worlds Video, 1998), HIGH TIDE (Falcon, 1997), PRAGUE RISING (Studio 2000, 2000), REFORM SCHOOL CONFIDENTIAL (All Worlds, 1997) and TIME COPS (Centaur Films, 1998). He appeared on several box covers including HOTTER THAN LIFE (All Worlds, 1997).

More details are forthcoming. On a personal note, I worked with Kristian Brooks and got to know him on the set of DREAM TEAM. He was talkative, bright and always had an anecdote related to his sexcapades that had the cast and crew in stitches. That's how I'll remember him. Our deep condolences to his family, friends and fans.
