Busty ... Trudy's clients included several famous people

One pal called Amber said of the busty beauty — found murdered hours after her lover survived his leap: “She was the best money could buy — the Queen bee.

Trudy told me who she had slept with and I was stunned.

“The famous people included a superstar singer, Premiership football player and a boy band member who looks like butter wouldn't melt in his mouth.” The body of porn star Trudy — a bisexual mum of one — was found on Tuesday at the flat she shared with scaffolder lover Nick Wells in Wandsworth, South West London.

Hours earlier he had leapt from a dual carriageway bridge on to the A27 in Brighton, East Sussex.

He escaped with a broken ankle. Cops confirmed last night: “A 28-year-old man has been arrested. He is currently in police custody.”

Trudy, who advertised herself as a lookalike of top model Caprice, claimed to have bedded 1,000 men AND women during her eight years selling sex. The 5ft 8in stunner set up her own escort agency six years ago.

Pal Amber, 27, said: “Clients would fly her around the world at a moment's notice — Arab businessmen, rich City boys and top bankers. Trudy reckoned her tally of lovers topped 1,000.

"It doesn't surprise me. Men told me that of all the girls they ever had, Trudy was the filthiest — she would do anything."

On her website, Trudy is described as "a beautiful blonde glamour model and adult movie star."

Yesterday forensic teams combed the ground-floor flat Trudy shared with her lover. An N-reg convertible BMW was also examined.

The couple's landlady said the pair moved in two months ago and seemed "very much in love." A neighbour said: "Nick was slightly possessive but not in a bad way." Trudy's parents Harry and Julie were caring for her daughter Sinead, ten — a pupil at a top boarding school.

Mrs Webb said at her home in Mundford, Norfolk: "I knew she was an escort. She used to tell me she was going out to dinner with people — that was all."
